

Soybean Management and Herbicide Workshop

Join us to learn about the importance of crop selection; disease and nutrient management; pesticide education; and more. Two PDA Category credits are pending

When:

Wednesday, Sept. 4, 2019
9:00am to 2:00pm

Where:

Thiele Dairy
753 N. Pike Rd.
Cabot, PA 16023

Cost:

$15 pre-registration (includes lunch)

Registration:

By phone: 1-877-345-0691
online: <https://extension.psu.edu/soybean-management-workshop-and-herbicide-demonstration>

Questions:

Call Justin Brackenrich
(724) 287-4761 ext 4

9:00am	Registration Opens
9:30am	Welcome and Operation Overview
9:45am	Local Grower Discussion: conversation among participants about current issues they are facing and questions they would like to have answered by the workshop
10:30am	Cultural Management Practices: presentation is designed to answer questions on issues related to practices of spacing, populations, and tillage.
11:15am	Insect and Disease Management: presentation is designed to answer questions on issues related to management of diseases and insects that are common to the area and to PA.
12:00pm	Lunch
12:30pm	Weed Management Systems: discussion will be centered around herbicide manage practices, mixing of modes of actions to limit resistance, and tank mix applications.
1:00pm	Herbicide Demonstration: participants will view soybean herbicide test plots and their effectiveness on different weeds and the results on late season soybeans
1:30pm	Harvest and Storage Considerations: presentation will be on when and how to best harvest and store crops based on moisture, bin type, and harvest equipment.
2:00pm	Wrap-up/ Evaluations

Speakers

Dr. Paul Esker
Extension Specialist

Justin Brackenrich
Agronomy Educator

Dwight Lingenfelter
Extension Associate

Del Voight
Agronomy Educator